The evaluation committee agreed that Mr. Paul Nadeau has demonstrated sufficient level of knowledge, skill and achievement in his draft for doctoral dissertation. The draft reflects the comments given at the interim review, and both the framework for partisanship in foreign policy and the case studies on US and Japanese perceptions on China are stated with significant clarity. Mr. Nadeau has successfully defended his dissertation in the final review as well. It is the unanimously agreement of the committee that Mr. Nadeau's work is worthy of approval as the PhD dissertation in the field of public policy.
