

SEISMOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF JAPAN.

CONSTITUTION.

[CORRECTED TO 1883 JAN. 1.]

1.—This Society shall be called the Seismological Society of Japan.

2.—The objects of this Society shall be the furtherance of the study of, and the collection of facts relating to all the phenomena connected with earthquakes and volcanoes.

3.—At the meetings of the Society papers on general science may be read, subject to the approval of the Society.

4.—This Society shall consist of Corporation, Honorary and Ordinary members.

5.—Honorary Members, who must be non-residents in Japan, shall be admitted on grounds to be determined by the Committee.

6.—}
7.—} Cancelled.

8.—The annual subscription shall be due on January 1st, and shall be, for members who receive the English Transactions, 8 yen, or £ 1., or $ 5. Japanese members who live in the interior may receive only the Japanese Transactions, and in that case the annual subscription shall be 4 yen.

9.—The Officers of the Society shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Foreign Secretary, a Japanese Secretary, a Foreign Treasurer, a Japanese Treasurer and five Ordinary Members, two of whom shall be residents of Yokohama. These eleven shall form the Committee, of whom four shall form a quorum. The Chairman of the Committee shall have a deciding vote.

10.—The affairs of this Society shall be managed by the Committee, who shall also decide on the papers to be published in the Transactions of the Society.

11.—General Meetings, due notice of which shall be given to the Members by the Secretary, shall be held at convenient dates in Tokio or Yokohama.

12.—The Officers of the Society shall be elected each year by ballot at an Annual Meeting.

13.—The Committee shall hold a Meeting one week before each General Meeting.

14.—At the Annual Meeting the Secretary and the Treasurer shall present their Reports.

15.—Any amendments to this constitution may be proposed at any General Meeting, and shall be considered at the next, when, if two-thirds of the Members are present, it may be passed by a majority vote; if however two-thirds of the Members are not present, and the majority of those present are in favor of the amendment, it shall be considered at the succeeding Meeting, when, if a majority of those present are in favor of the amendment, it shall be adopted.

16.—The Secretary shall notify Members of proposed amendments to the constitution.

RULES ADOPTED BY THE COMMITTEE.

[CORRECTED TO 1883 JAN. 1.]

---

1.—Every paper shall be submitted to the Committee, either in full or abstract, before it is put on the list of the Society for public reading.

2.—Any person presenting a paper to the Society shall be required to state whether he intends to publish it elsewhere.

3.—Each paper shall be submitted to a sub-committee who shall have power to recommend whether it shall be printed in the Transactions of the Society by title, in abstract, or in full.

4.—The printing, in the Society's Transactions, of remarks or criticisms upon papers read at any meeting, shall be limited substantially to what was uttered in public at such meeting; or if any new matter, in the way of further remark or criticism, is offered later, it must first be submitted to the Committee for their decision.

5.—To any new Member of the Society will be given one copy of all the volumes of the Transactions published after such Member joins the Society, and to any retiring Member the volumes including the papers read up to the time of such Member's resignation, if all his dues are then paid.

6.—To Members of the Society extra copies of the Transactions will be sold at the cost price of publication, which may be learned by application to the Secretary.
